Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Kiyo Bank, Ltd. and its consolidated subsidiaries
Years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025

1. Basis of presenting consolidated financial statements

The Kiyo Bank, Ltd. (the “Bank”) and its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Group”) maintain their official accounting records in Japanese yen, in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Japanese Companies Act and the Japanese Banking Act, in general conformity with the Japanese regulatory authorities and in conformity with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain respects from the application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been restructured and translated into English, with some expanded descriptions, from the consolidated financial statements of the Bank prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP and filed with the appropriate Local Finance Bureau of the Ministry of Finance as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. Some supplementary information included in the statutory Japanese language consolidated financial statements, but not required for fair presentation, is not presented in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. In preparing these consolidated financial statements, certain reclassifications and rearrangements have been made in order to present them in a form which is more familiar to readers outside Japan.

Amounts of less than one million yen have been rounded down. As a result, the totals shown in the financial statements (both in yen and U.S. dollars) do not necessarily agree with the sum of the individual amounts.

The translations of the Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for the convenience of the readers outside Japan, using the prevailing exchange rate at March 31, 2026, which was ¥159.88 to US $1.00. The translations should not be construed as representations that the Japanese yen amounts have been, could have been or could in the future be converted into U.S. dollars at this or any other rate of exchange.

2. Significant accounting policies

(a) Consolidation — The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Bank and eight (eight in 2025) subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2026. All significant intercompany transactions and unrealized profits have been eliminated. In the elimination of investments in subsidiaries, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiaries, including the portion attributable to non-controlling interests, are evaluated using the fair value at the time the Bank acquired control of the respective subsidiary.

(Unconsolidated subsidiaries)

There are four (three in 2025) unconsolidated subsidiaries (Kiyo 1st Growth Support Investment Limited Partnership, Kiyo 2nd Growth Support Investment Limited Partnership, Kiyo 1st Startup Debt Fund Investment Limited Partnership and Kiyo 1st Healthcare Fund Investment Limited Partnership) as of March 31, 2026. These companies are excluded from the scope of consolidation because the results of their operations have no material effect on the consolidated financial position and operating results of the Group in terms of total assets, profit (corresponding to the share), retained earnings (corresponding to the share) and accumulated other comprehensive income (corresponding to the share). These companies are not accounted for by the equity method.

As of March 31, 2026, there are three companies in which the Bank holds more than 50% of the voting rights but are not recognized as subsidiaries, as they are held by unconsolidated subsidiaries engaged in investment activities for the purpose of fostering investment rather than controlling the companies.

(Affiliate)

As of March 31, 2026, there are no affiliates.

The fiscal closing date of all the consolidated subsidiaries is March 31.

(b) Trading account securities — Trading account securities are stated at fair value. Gains and losses realized on the sale of such securities and unrealized gains and losses from fair value fluctuations are recognized as gains and losses in the period of the change. Realized gains and losses on the sale of such securities are computed using the moving average cost.

(c) Securities — The Bank and its consolidated subsidiaries classify securities as (1) debt securities intended to be held to maturity (“held-to-maturity debt securities”), (2) equity securities issued by subsidiaries and affiliated companies and (3) all other securities that are not classified in any of the above categories (“available-for-sale securities”). Held-to-maturity debt securities are stated at amortized cost. Available-for-sale securities are stated at fair value, except for equity and other securities without fair market value, which are stated at acquisition cost determined by the moving average method. Unrealized gains and unrealized losses on these securities are reported, net of applicable income taxes, as a separate component of net assets. Realized gains and losses on the sale of such securities are computed using the moving average cost.

Securities invested as trust assets in the individually managed money held in trust whose primary purpose is to manage securities are stated at fair value.

(d) Derivatives and hedge accounting — Derivatives are stated at fair value, except when the derivatives are used for hedging purposes. If derivatives are used for hedging purposes and meet certain hedging criteria, recognition of gains and losses resulting from changes in fair value are deferred until the related losses and gains on the hedged items are recognized.

The following hedge accounting is applied to derivatives:

(Foreign exchange fluctuation risk hedge)

To hedge foreign exchange fluctuation risk arising from foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities of the Bank, the Bank applies the deferral method in accordance with “Treatment of Accounting and Auditing Concerning Accounting for Foreign Currency Transactions in the Banking Industry” (JICPA Industry Committee Practical Guidelines No. 25, October 8, 2020). Hedge effectiveness is assessed by ensuring the existence of the corresponding foreign currency positions as hedging instruments, such as currency swaps and foreign exchange swaps conducted to mitigate foreign currency exchange fluctuation risk arising from foreign currency denominated monetary receivables and payables, equivalent to foreign currency denominated monetary receivables and payables as hedged items.

(e) Depreciation and amortization

(Tangible fixed assets (excluding lease assets))

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets held by the Bank is generally computed by the declining balance method. However, buildings (excluding attached facilities) acquired on or after April 1, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired on or after April 1, 2016 are depreciated using the straight-line method. The useful life of tangible fixed assets ranges from 8 to 50 years for buildings and 5 to 20 years for equipment. Tangible fixed assets held by the consolidated subsidiaries are mainly depreciated using the declining balance method based on the estimated useful life of the asset.

(Intangible fixed assets (excluding lease assets))

Intangible fixed assets are amortized by the straight-line method. Software developed or obtained for internal use is amortized by the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 5 years.

(Lease assets)

Depreciation and amortization of lease assets, including both “Tangible fixed assets” and “Intangible fixed assets,” under leasing transactions that are not deemed to transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee are computed by the straight-line method over the lease period with a residual value of zero.

Changes in accounting estimates

(Changes in useful lives)

Buildings, facilities attached to buildings, and structures at the Bank-owned Head Office North Building had been depreciated over estimated useful lives of 3 to 50 years. However, the Bank shortened the useful lives of the tangible fixed assets at the current Head Office North Building, applying the change prospectively following the finalization of the master plan for the new head office building in September 2025.

As a result, profit before income taxes for the year ended March 31, 2026 decreased by ¥175 million ($1,094 thousand).

(f) Reserve for possible loan losses — Based on its predetermined standards, the Bank makes provisions for possible loan losses.

For loans to insolvent customers who are undergoing bankruptcy or other collection proceedings (“bankrupt borrowers”) or who are in a similar financial condition (“effectively bankrupt borrowers”), the reserve for possible loan losses is provided for the full amount of such loans, excluding the portion that is estimated to be recoverable due to any underlying collateral or guarantees. For the unsecured and unguaranteed portions of loans to customers not presently in the above circumstances but for whom there is a high probability of so becoming (“likely to become bankrupt borrowers”), the reserve for possible loan losses is provided for the amount of loans excluding the portion that is estimated to be recoverable due to any underlying collateral or guarantees (“unsecured amount”) after an evaluation of each customer’s overall financial condition. In addition to these, for loans to likely to become bankrupt borrowers whose possibility of bankruptcy is higher than that of other likely to become bankrupt borrowers in respect of certain financial indicators, the Bank records an additional reserve for the unsecured amount deemed necessary after making a well-rounded judgement from historical records of downgrading of the borrower category, etc., in order to work to strengthen preparations for future uncertainties due to deterioration in borrowers’ business results and secure soundness, and thereby ensuring to fulfill a financial intermediary function continuously. Accordingly, the additional reserve for possible loan losses was provided in the amount of ¥1,349 million ($8,437 thousand) and ¥1,687 million as of March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

For loans to borrowers who are in good business condition and whose financial condition is not particularly problematic (“normal borrowers”) and other borrowers requiring attention for future management, such as those with problematic lending conditions, performance problems, weak or unstable business conditions, or with problematic financial conditions (“borrowers requiring attention”), the reserve for possible loan losses is provided principally based on the estimated losses for the coming one year or three years. The estimated losses are computed using the loss ratio based on the average loan loss ratio for the past definite period based on the actual losses for the past one or three years, with necessary adjustments such as future projections.

All loans are subject to asset assessment by the business-related divisions based on the self-assessment standards for assets. The assessment results are audited by the Asset Audit Department independent from the divisions concerned.

Reserves for possible loan losses of the consolidated subsidiaries are provided for general claims in the amount deemed necessary based on the rate of losses in the past and for certain doubtful claims in the amount deemed uncollectible based on assessments of the respective claims.

For claims against “bankrupt borrowers” and “effectively bankrupt borrowers,” in principle, the amount exceeding the estimated value of collateral and guarantees deemed uncollectible is deducted directly from those claims. At March 31, 2026 and 2025, the deducted amounts were ¥11,452 million ($71,628 thousand) and ¥11,639 million, respectively.

(g) Reserve for reimbursement of deposits — Provision is made for future losses from claims on dormant accounts based on historical refund records.

(h) Provision for contingent losses — Provision is made for payment on loan-loss burden sharing to credit guarantee corporations in an amount estimated to be paid in the future.

(i) Provision for head office reconstruction losses — The Bank recognizes a provision for losses arising from the reconstruction of its head office in an amount deemed necessary based on reasonable estimates.

(j) Accounting for employees’ severance and retirement benefits — In determining retirement benefit obligations, the estimated amount of retirement benefits is attributed to periods on a benefit formula basis.

Differences generated from changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to income in an amount allocated by the straight-line method over 9 years, which is shorter than the average remaining service period of the employees, beginning with the term following that when the differences are generated.

In calculating the net defined benefit liability and retirement benefit expenses, some consolidated subsidiaries have adopted a simplified method in which the amount required to be paid if all the employees retired voluntarily at the fiscal year end is regarded as retirement benefit obligations.

(k) Foreign currency translation — Receivables and payables in foreign currencies of the Bank and its consolidated subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the year-end rates.

(l) Income taxes — Income taxes comprise corporation, inhabitants and enterprise taxes. Deferred tax assets are recorded by the asset-liability approach based on carryforward loss and the temporary differences between the financial statement bases and tax bases of assets and liabilities.

(m) Significant accounting for revenue and costs

Finance leases — As lessor, revenue and cost of sales are recognized upon the receipt of lease charges.

Revenue from contracts with customers — The Bank recognizes revenue when control of a promised good or service is transferred to the customer.

(n) Consolidated statements of cash flows — Cash and deposits with the Bank of Japan that are included in the consolidated balance sheets under cash and due from banks are considered to be cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

(o) Earnings per share — Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing profit attributable to owners of parent by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, excluding treasury stock, outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if outstanding stock options were exercised.

(p) Significant accounting estimates

Reserve for possible loan losses:

- a. The Bank recorded reserve for possible loan losses of ¥19,471 million ($121,785 thousand) and ¥20,222 million in the consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

As stated in Note 2 (f), “Significant accounting policies-Reserve for possible loan losses,” the additional reserve for possible loan losses was provided in the amount of ¥1,349 million ($8,437 thousand) and ¥1,687 million, respectively, as of March 31, 2026 and 2025.

- b. Significant accounting estimates related to the identified items:

Calculation method:

Information regarding the methods used to calculate amounts is provided in Note 2 (f), “Significant accounting policies-Reserve for possible loan losses.”

Self-assessment stated in Note 2 (f) refers to the process of examining and analyzing each asset held individually and classifying them according to the degree of risk of non-recovery or impairment of value. Borrowers are categorized as “normal,” “requiring attention,” “likely to become bankrupt,” “effectively bankrupt” or “bankrupt” through a multi-step assessment process: 1) determine the repayment ability based on the borrower’s financial condition, cash flows, earning capacity, etc.; 2) confirm the terms of the loan to the borrower and the performance status of the loan; 3) evaluate the characteristics of the industry, etc., the outlook for business continuity and profitability, the ability of the borrower to repay debt based on annual repayable amounts, and the appropriateness of the business improvement plan, etc. The Bank makes appropriate write-offs and provisions according to the borrower category. For delinquent loans past due three months or more and restructured loans to borrowers requiring attention, the Bank classifies them as borrowers requiring control and makes write-offs and provisions separately.

Reserves for possible loan losses of the consolidated subsidiaries are provided for general claims for the amount deemed necessary based on the rate of loss in the past and for certain doubtful claims in the amount deemed uncollectible based on individual assessments of the respective claims.

Main assumptions:

The main assumption used is the “credit risk of borrowers in assessment of the borrower category.” “Credit risk of borrowers in assessment of the borrower category” is determined by assessing the repayment capability of the borrower based on the borrower’s financial condition, cash flows, earning capacity, etc. In addition, for loans to likely to become bankrupt borrowers whose possibility of bankruptcy is higher than that of other likely to become bankrupt borrowers in respect of certain financial indicators, the Bank deems their credit risk to be higher. Under this assumption, the Bank determines the borrower category, taking into consideration available information that affects the estimates and records reserve for possible loan losses.

Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the following year:

Major customers may experience deterioration in operating performance or bankruptcy, decrease in collateral value, changes in economic circumstances, or other unforeseen events.

If events and/or changes in circumstances such as those described above indeed occur, and the categories of borrowers, the amounts estimated to be recoverable from underlying collateral or guarantees, the estimated loss ratio and other major assumptions used to calculate reserve for possible loan losses undergo change, the reserve may need additional provisions, and there may be other significant impacts on the reserve for possible loan losses in the consolidated financial statements for the following year.

(q) New accounting standards not yet adopted

“Accounting Standard for Leases” (ASBJ Statement No. 34, September 13, 2024)

“Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Leases” (ASBJ Guidance No. 33, September 13, 2024)
and other related ASBJ Statements and Guidance

(1) Overview

As part of its efforts to ensure consistency between Japanese GAAP and global standards, ASBJ had been working to develop the accounting standard for leases that lessees recognize all leases as assets and liabilities, taking into consideration accounting principles generally accepted internationally. The new standards and implementation guidance are based on the single lessee accounting model of IFRS 16, in principle, applying not all but only the main provisions of IFRS 16. The aim is to provide simple and convenient guidelines that requires no fundamental modifications when applying the provisions of IFRS 16 in non-consolidated financial statements.

Regarding the method for allocating the lease expenses in the lessee’s accounting treatment, the same approach is used as IFRS 16. This means that a single accounting model is applied for recording depreciation associated with the right-of-use assets and the amount equivalent to the interest on the lease liabilities for all leases, regardless of whether the lease is a finance lease or an operating lease.

(2) Effective date

These statements and guidance are scheduled to be adopted from the beginning of the year ending March 31, 2028.

(3) Effects of adoption

The Bank is currently evaluating the effects of the adoption of these on the consolidated financial statements.

(r) Changes in accounting estimates

(Change in the calculation method of reserve for possible loan losses)

For the year ended March 31, 2026

For loans to normal borrowers and borrowers requiring attention excluding borrowers requiring control (“other borrowers requiring attention”), the reserve for possible loan losses is provided principally based on the estimated losses for the coming one year. The estimated losses are computed using the loss ratio based on the average loan loss ratio for the past definite period based on the actual losses for the past one year, with necessary adjustments such as future projections. Concerning the average loan loss ratio for the past definite period, the Bank previously used the larger of either the short-term average loan loss ratio, or the average loan loss ratio for the period after the integration with The Wakayama Bank Ltd., April 2007, that was set as a calculation period. However, it was changed to employ the larger of either the short-term average loan loss ratio, or the average loan loss ratio for a long-term considered as a reasonable calculation period that is adjusted to business cycles, in order to make the provision for possible loan losses reflect more reality by incorporating economic trends, etc.

In addition, for the year ended March 31, 2024, the Bank provided the preventive reserve for possible loan losses on borrowers affected by COVID-19. Socioeconomic activities suspended due to the COVID-19 pandemic have been normalized greatly since COVID-19 was reclassified into Category V Infectious Diseases. On the other hand, the Bank assesses that the credit risk of some borrowers is still high considering their financial condition. Therefore, for the year ended March 31, 2025, for loans to likely to become bankrupt borrowers whose possibility of bankruptcy is higher than that of other likely to become bankrupt borrowers in respect of certain financial indicators, the Bank changed to record the additional reserve for the unsecured amount deemed necessary after making a well-rounded judgement from historical records of downgrading of the borrower category, etc.

As a result of the above changes, reserve for possible loan losses decreased by ¥3,034 million as of March 31, 2025, and profit before income taxes increased ¥3,034 million for the year then ended.

Not applicable.

For the year ended March 31, 2025

(Issuance of Treasury Stock to the Employees through the Trust)

The Bank has introduced “Trust-Type Employee Stock Incentive Plan” to fulfill welfare program for the Group employees and to improve business performances by granting incentives to the Group employees toward enhancement of medium and long-term corporate value and enhancing the employees’ awareness of participation in management.

(1) Overview of transactions

The Plan is an incentive plan for all the employees that participate in either “Kiyo Financial Group Employee Stock Ownership Association” or “Kiyo Information System Employee Stock Ownership Association” (collectively “both Associations”).

The Bank has established “Kiyo Financial Group Employee Stock Ownership Association Trust” (hereinafter referred to as the “Trust”). The Trust will acquire in advance the Bank’s shares approximate to the number of shares both Associations may acquire over three years after its inception. Subsequently, the Bank’s shares will be regularly transferred from the Trust to both Associations at market value. When the amounts corresponding to gains on sales of shares are accumulated within the Trust at the termination of the Trust, such amounts will be distributed to the qualified employees who satisfy the requirements as a beneficiary.

In addition, the Bank will assume the obligation to pay for the remaining loan balances pursuant to the guarantee agreement since the Bank guarantees the loans for the Trust in purchasing the Bank’s shares. As such, when the amounts corresponding to losses on sales of shares due to decline in the Bank’s share value are accumulated in the Trust and the loan balances remain within the Trust upon termination of the Trust, the Bank will repay the remaining balance.

The Trust terminated in December 2024.

(2) The Bank’s shares remaining in the Trust

The Bank’s shares remaining in the Trust are recorded as “Treasury stock” under “Net assets” at the carrying amount (excluding incidental expenses) recorded at the Trust. During the year ended March 31, 2025, all of the Bank’s shares held by the Trust were sold, therefore there were no shares in the Trust as of March 31, 2025.

(3) The carrying amount of the borrowed money recorded by applying the gross amount method as of March 31, 2025 was nil.

3. Cash and cash equivalents

As of March 31, 2026 and 2025, the amounts of cash and cash equivalents at end of year in the consolidated statements of cash flows were in agreement with the amounts of cash and due from banks in the consolidated balance sheets.

4. Trading account securities, money held in trust and other securities

Net valuation gains and losses from trading account securities for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025 amounted to ¥(0) million ($0) thousand and nil, respectively.

Investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries (four in 2026 and three in 2025) in the amounts of ¥3,010 million ($18,826 thousand) and ¥1,414 million are included in “Securities” as of March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

Fair values and unrealized gains and losses on held-to-maturity debt securities and available-for-sale securities as of March 31, 2026 and 2025 were as follows:

(a) Held-to-maturity debt securities

Securities other than trading account securities (excluding equity and other securities without fair market value and investments in partnerships) that has declined significantly from the acquisition cost and for which there is deemed to be no likelihood of the fair value recovering to the acquisition cost level are recorded on the balance sheet at the fair value. In addition, the difference between acquisition cost and fair value is posted as a loss in the consolidated accounts for the fiscal year (this process is known as “impairment accounting”). The Bank recognized impairment loss on equity securities of ¥1,501 million ($9,388 thousand) for the year ended March 31, 2026 while no impairment loss was recognized for the year ended March 31, 2025.

The criteria for determining when available-for-sale securities have “significantly declined” are cases in which the fair value has fallen below 70% of the acquisition cost; or the fair value of a debt security under available-for-sale securities has fallen not below 70%, but the credit worthiness of the issuing company has worsened. In these cases, impairment loss is recognized as follows:

- (1) For all the securities whose fair value has fallen below 50% of the acquisition cost, impairment accounting is implemented.
- (2) For securities whose fair value has fallen below 70% but not below 50%, impairment accounting is implemented taking into account internal and external factors such as the business performance of the issuing company, the market price movements, trends of the market environments, etc. For bonds, impairment accounting is implemented taking into account credit worthiness of the issuing company with respect to those whose market prices are deemed unlikely to recover to the acquisition cost.
- (3) For securities whose fair value has fallen, but not below 70% of the acquisition cost and the credit worthiness of the issuing company has worsened, impairment accounting is implemented, if necessary, taking into account its credit worthiness, etc.

(c) There were no bonds classified as held-to-maturity sold during the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025.

(d) Total sales of available-for-sale securities in the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025 amounted to ¥244,566 million ($1,529,684 thousand) and ¥167,021 million, respectively. The related gains and losses for the year ended March 31, 2026 amounted to ¥7,037 million ($44,014 thousand) and ¥9,185 million ($57,449 thousand), respectively. The related gains and losses for the year ended March 31, 2025 amounted to ¥3,576 million and ¥12,570 million, respectively.

5. Loans and bills discounted

Loans under the Banking Act and the Act on Emergency Measures for the Revitalization of the Financial Functions are shown in the following table. These loans include the following:

- Corporate bonds included in “Securities” in the consolidated balance sheets (limited to those that are guaranteed for all or part of the redemption of principal and payment of interest and issued through private placement of securities (Article 2, Paragraph 3 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act))
- Loans and bills discounted
- Foreign exchange
- Those accounted for as accrued interest and suspense payments under “Other assets,” and customers’ liabilities for acceptances and guarantees
- Loans of securities described in the accompanying notes, if there is any, limited to those under a loan-for-use or a lease agreement

Bankrupt and quasi-bankrupt loans are loans to borrowers who have fallen into bankruptcy due to initiation of bankruptcy proceedings, reorganization proceedings, petition for commencement of rehabilitation proceedings, and other similar loans.

Doubtful loans are loans for which the borrower has not yet entered into bankruptcy, but the borrower’s financial condition and business performance have deteriorated, it is highly probable that the principal of or interest on the loan will not be collected as agreed, and are loans which do not fall under bankrupt and quasi-bankrupt loans.

Delinquent loans past due three months or more are loans with principal or interest unpaid for three months or more from the day after the agreed-upon payment date and which do not fall under bankrupt and quasi-bankrupt loans or doubtful loans.

Restructured loans are loans on which the terms and conditions have been amended in favor of the borrowers in order to facilitate or assist the borrowers’ restructuring by reducing the rate of interest, by providing a grace period for the payment of principal or interest, or by providing loan forgiveness, and which do not fall under any of the above categories.

The amounts of the above loans are before deducting any reserve for possible loan losses.

The Bank applies “Accounting and Auditing Treatment of Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments in the Banking Industry” (JICPA Industry Committee Practical Guidelines No. 24, March 17, 2022) and accounts for bills discounted as financial transactions. The face value of bank acceptances, bills of exchange and bills of lading which were permitted to be sold or pledged without restrictions and which were acquired at a discount amounted to ¥4,767 million ($29,816 thousand) and ¥6,451 million at March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

The carrying amount of loan participation, which was accounted for as loans to original borrowers in accordance with “Accounting and Presentation of Loan Participations” (ASBJ Transferred Guidance No. 1, July 1, 2024), was ¥354 million ($2,214 thousand) and ¥437 million at March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

6. Tangible fixed assets

Accumulated depreciation for tangible fixed assets at March 31, 2026 and 2025 was ¥42,003 million ($262,715 thousand) and ¥41,962 million, respectively. The amount of accumulated contributions deducted from the acquisition cost of tangible fixed assets was ¥3,904 million ($24,418 thousand) and ¥3,931 million at March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

10. Employees' severance and retirement benefits

(a) Overview of the retirement benefit plans adopted by the Bank and its consolidated subsidiaries

The Bank has defined benefit pension plans consisting of a corporate pension plan and a lump-sum payment plan, and established a corporate-type defined contribution pension plan. In addition, the Bank has set up a retirement benefit trust.

A consolidated subsidiary has adopted a defined contribution pension plan, and participated in defined benefit pension funds under multi-employer plans and it is accounted for in the same manner as the defined contribution plan since the amount of plan assets corresponding to its contribution cannot be reasonably determined.

Other consolidated subsidiaries have adopted lump-sum payment plans, and net defined benefit liability and severance and retirement benefit expenses are calculated using a simplified method.

(b) Defined benefit plans, including the plans to which a simplified method is applied

(1) The changes in projected benefit obligation for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025 were as follows:

(7) Plan assets

(i) Components of plan assets as of March 31, 2026 and 2025

Plan assets consisted of the following:

|                   | 2026 | 2025 |
|-------------------|------|------|
| Stocks            | 46%  | 48%  |
| Cash and deposits | 15%  | 14%  |
| Bonds             | 15%  | 12%  |
| General accounts  | 13%  | 12%  |
| Other             | 11%  | 14%  |
| Total             | 100% | 100% |

Note: Total plan assets include the assets of the retirement benefit trust established for lump-sum payment plans representing 47% and 50% of total assets as of March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

(ii) Method of determining the long-term expected rate of return on plan assets

The long-term expected rate of return on plan assets is determined with consideration for the allocation of plan assets expected currently and in the future and the long-term rates of return which are expected currently and in the future from the various components of the plan assets.

(8) Assumptions used for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025 were as follows (presented at weighted average rates):

|                                                  | 2026 | 2025 |
|--------------------------------------------------|------|------|
| Discount rate                                    | 2.9% | 1.2% |
| Long-term expected rate of return on plan assets | 0.8% | 0.6% |
| Expected rate of salary increase                 | 7.3% | 7.3% |

(c) Defined contribution plans

The required contribution to the defined contribution plans of the Bank and its consolidated subsidiaries was ¥223 million ($1,394 thousand) and ¥215 million for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

The multi-employer plan under which the amount of the required contribution is treated as retirement benefit expense is as follows:

12. Shareholders' equity

(a) Capital stock

The number of shares of the Bank's capital stock as of March 31, 2026 and 2025 was as follows:

|             | Thousands of shares |         |
|-------------|---------------------|---------|
|             | 2026                | 2025    |
| Authorized: |                     |         |
| Common      | 120,000             | 120,000 |
| Total       | 120,000             | 120,000 |

(b) Retained earnings

Japanese banks are subject to the Companies Act of Japan (the "Act") and the Banking Act. The Act requires that all shares of common stock be recorded with no par value and that at least 50% of the issue price of new shares be recorded as common stock and the remaining net proceeds as additional paid-in capital, which is included in capital surplus. The Act permits Japanese companies, upon approval of their Boards of Directors, to issue shares to existing shareholders without limitation. Such issuance of shares generally does not give rise to changes within the shareholders' accounts.

The Act requires that an amount equal to 10% of dividends be appropriated as a legal reserve (a component of retained earnings) or as additional paid-in capital (a component of capital surplus), depending on the equity account charged upon the payment of such dividends, until the total of aggregate amount of legal reserve and additional paid-in capital equals 25% of the capital stock. Under the Act, the total amount of additional paid-in capital and legal reserve may be reserved without limitation. The Act also provides that capital stock, legal reserve, additional paid-in capital, other capital surplus and retained earnings can be transferred among the accounts under certain conditions upon resolution of the shareholders.

The Act allows Japanese companies to repurchase treasury stock and dispose of such treasury stock by resolution of the Board of Directors. The repurchased amount of treasury stock cannot exceed the amount available for future dividends plus the amount of stated capital, additional paid-in capital or legal reserve to be reduced in cases in which a reduction was resolved at the shareholders' meeting.

In addition to requiring an appropriation for a legal reserve in connection with cash payments, the Act imposes certain limitations on the amount of retained earnings available for dividends.

Dividends are approved by the shareholders at a meeting held subsequent to the fiscal year for which the dividends are applicable. Semiannual interim dividends may also be paid upon resolution of the Board of Directors, subject to certain limitations imposed by the Act.

13. Changes in net assets

(a) Type and number of shares issued and treasury stock

At March 31, 2026 and 2025, the number of shares was as follows:

|                 | Thousands of shares |          |          | 2026   |

(3) Estimation of number of stock options vested

The method the Bank uses to estimate the number of stock options vested reflects actual forfeited options since it is difficult to reasonably estimate the number of stock options to be forfeited in the future.

With respect to the calculation of impairment loss on fixed assets, the minimum operational unit recognized for management accounting purposes by the Bank is the single bank branch. However, where a number of branches operate as a group at the managerial level, the accounting unit is the group rather than the individual branch. Each unit of idle assets (one “unit” is defined as one plot of land or one building) is treated as a separate and individual unit for accounting purposes. Because the head office, administration center and Bank provided housing and dormitories for the staff of the Bank do not independently generate any cash flows, they are treated as assets held in common by the Bank for accounting purposes.

With respect to the consolidated subsidiaries, each company is treated as a separate and individual unit for impairment accounting purposes.

In calculating impairment loss on fixed assets for the reporting period, the amount deemed recoverable, i.e., the net proceeds from sale, was estimated by deducting the cost of disposal from the real estate appraisal value based on official appraisal standards. For immaterial assets, the recoverable value is determined by deducting the estimated cost of disposal from the appraisal value based on the roadside land prices, etc.

18. Income taxes

The Bank is subject to a number of taxes based on income, which, in the aggregate, indicate a statutory rate in Japan of approximately 30.4% for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025. The table below summarizes the significant differences between the statutory tax rate and the Bank's effective tax rate for financial statement purposes for the years ended March 31, 2026 and 2025.

Note: As of March 31, 2026, valuation allowance decreased by ¥697 million ($4,359 thousand). This decrease was due mainly to a decrease in valuation allowance of reserve for possible loan losses of the Bank in the amount of ¥529 million ($3,308 thousand).

As of March 31, 2025, valuation allowance decreased by ¥847 million. This decrease was due mainly to a decrease in valuation allowance of reserve for possible loan losses of the Bank in the amount of ¥903 million.

Net amounts recorded in the consolidated balance sheets after offsetting by each taxable entity at March 31, 2026 and 2025 were as follows:

|                          | Millions of yen |         | Thousands of U.S.dollars |

Following the enactment of the Act for Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act (Act No. 13 of 2025) on March 31, 2025, a new special defense surtax shall be imposed on corporate income tax for fiscal years beginning on or after 1 April 2026. Consequently, the statutory tax rate used to calculate deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities was changed from 30.4% to 31.3% for those expected to be realized or settled for the year beginning on April 1, 2026 and thereafter. The effects on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025 due to this change were immaterial.

(Note 3) The Bank's shares held by Kiyo Financial Group Employee Stock Ownership Association Trust, which are recorded as treasury stock under shareholders' equity, are included in the number of treasury stock to be deducted from the average number of shares during the term in computing basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share.

Because all of the said shares were sold during the year ended March 31, 2025, there was no such treasury stock deducted in computing basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share for the year ended March 31, 2026. The number of those treasury stock for the year ended March 31, 2025 was 66 thousand shares.

21. Overdraft agreements and commitment line agreements

Overdraft agreements and commitment line agreements are agreements which oblige the Bank to lend funds up to a certain limit agreed to in advance. The Bank makes the loans upon a borrower's request to draw down funds under the agreements as long as there is no breach of the various terms and conditions stipulated in the agreements. The unused balances within the lending limits related to these agreements at March 31, 2026 and 2025 amounted to ¥559,575 million ($3,499,968 thousand) and ¥508,595 million, respectively. Of this amount, those with terms of one year or less or that were unconditionally cancelable at any time totaled ¥442,201 million ($2,765,830 thousand) and ¥402,762 million, respectively.

In many cases, the term of the agreement runs its course without the loan ever being drawn down. Therefore, the unused balances within the lending limits will not necessarily affect future cash flows. Conditions are included in certain loan agreements which allow the Bank to decline a request to draw down funds or to reduce the agreed limit amount when there is a cause to do so, such as when there is a change in the financial condition of the borrower or when it is necessary to protect the Bank's credit. The Bank makes various measures to protect its credit, including having the obligor pledge collateral in the form of real estate, securities, etc., on signing the loan agreement or confirming the obligor's financial condition in accordance with the Bank's established internal procedures.

22. Financial instruments and related disclosures

1. Disclosure about financial instruments

(1) Policy on financial instruments

The Group provides comprehensive financial services such as deposit-taking and lending services, leasing operations, credit card business and others. Since the Group is exposed to the market risk of fluctuation in interest rates arising from deposit-taking, lending services and securities investment operations, the Group conducts comprehensive asset and liability management (ALM) and engages in derivative transactions.

(2) Nature and risk of financial instruments

Financial assets held by the Group consist mainly of loans to domestic customers that are exposed to credit risk arising from the customers' nonperformance of contractual obligations and the risk of interest rate fluctuations. Securities held by the Group consist mainly of debt securities, equity securities and investment trusts, which are held for the purpose of holding to maturity, pure investment, strategic investment and trading purposes. These securities are exposed to the credit risk of the issuers, interest rate fluctuation risk and price fluctuation risk.

Financial liabilities consist mainly of deposits, which are exposed to liquidity risk and interest rate fluctuation risk, as with financial assets.

Major risks inherent in derivative transactions include the market risk of fluctuation in interest rates, foreign exchange, stock prices and other market instruments and the credit risk arising from customers' nonperformance of contractual obligations. The Group employs derivative transactions mainly to hedge these risks, and the market risk of the hedged items is almost entirely offset by the derivatives. Hedging instruments to which hedge accounting is applied are currency swaps, etc. The corresponding hedged items are securities.

(3) Risk management system for financial instruments

Credit risk management

The Group has established a credit risk management system that includes the "Credit Risk Control Rule" and other various rules and defines the basic credit risk control policy and management system. Specifically, the Review Department conducts reviews according to the risk characteristics of the credit items by identifying the financial position, use of funds, repayment resources and other factors related to credit customers. The Credit Control Department sets up and controls limits to avoid the concentration of credit risk and identifies the quantitative level of credit risk. The Department is also responsible for the maintenance of the credit rating system and reports the measured volume of credit risk to the Board of Directors and the Risk Management Committee so that credit risk management may be discussed within the framework of integrated risk control.

Market risk management

The Group has established a market risk management system that includes the "Market Risk Control Rule" and other various rules and defines the basic market risk control policy and management system.

(i) Interest rate risk management

With respect to interest rate management, the Group regularly measures the volume of interest rate risk arising from assets and liabilities such as securities, loans and deposits and conducts interest rate gap analysis and interest rate sensitivity analysis and reports the outcome to the ALM Strategy Committee and the Risk Control Committee. The Group also has established specific limits on the level of interest rate risk.

(ii) Price fluctuation risk management

With respect to price fluctuation risk, the Group controls the level of risk on a daily basis by measuring the risk volume and setting up limits on the level of risk. Securities held for pure investment purposes are controlled by setting up limits on transactions and losses above those set up by the Executive Committee in addition to the risk volume control. With respect to shares held for strategic investment purposes, the Group tries to reduce the risk level by limiting the balance and using hedge transactions, etc.

(iii) Foreign exchange risk management

The Group identifies the fluctuation risk associated with foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities, controls the risk within the limit determined by the Executive Committee and works to mitigate the risk using currency swaps, etc.

(iv) Derivative transactions

Derivatives transactions are employed principally and limitedly for hedging purposes. An internal control system has been established by segregating the functions of executing derivative transactions, evaluating hedge effectiveness and controlling operations.

(v) Quantitative information on market risk

Major financial instruments that are affected by interest rate risk that is regarded as major risk factors are call loans, monetary claims bought, bonds and investment trusts included in securities, loans and bills discounted, deposits, call money, payables under securities lending transactions and borrowed money. Financial instruments that are affected by price fluctuation risk consist of stocks and investment trusts included in securities.

The Bank calculates Value at Risk (VaR) to capture the effects of income and economic value from interest rate fluctuation and price fluctuation. VaR is made available to internal management. To calculate VaR, the Bank applies the variance and covariance method, using 3 to 6 months as the holding period based on risk characteristics, 99% as the confidence interval and 1 to 5 years as the observation period based on risk characteristics. The amount of risk at March 31, 2026 and 2025 was ¥15,559 million ($97,316 thousand) and ¥16,864 million, respectively, for interest rate risk and ¥13,989 million ($87,496 thousand) and ¥17,097 million, respectively, for price fluctuation risk.

In addition, the Bank verifies the effectiveness of risk measurement under the variance and covariance method by a back testing protocol that compares VaR to actual income.

In calculating VaR on interest rate risk, the core deposits of liquid deposits are adjusted. Core deposits do not have a specified interest rate adjustment interval and are demand deposits that are expected to be held for the long term without withdrawal. VaR is a statistical measure of market risk volume under a certain probability of occurrence based on the past market fluctuations. Accordingly, it may be impossible to capture the risk if the market fluctuates rapidly under extraordinary circumstances.

Liquidity risk management

The Group has established a liquidity risk management system that includes the “Liquidity Risk Control Rule” and other various rules and defines the basic liquidity risk control policy and management system. The Group tries to control liquidity risk by maintaining stable cash management, securing highly liquid reserves and strengthening preliminary controls.

(4) Supplementary explanation about fair value of financial instruments

In addition to fair values based on the market price, the calculation of fair values of financial instruments involves reasonable alternative valuation methods if no market price is available. Since certain assumptions are used in calculating the values, the outcome of such calculations may vary if different assumptions are used.

2. Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying amount, the fair value and any difference as of March 31, 2026 and 2025 are set forth in the tables below. Note that equity and other securities without fair market value and investments in partnerships were not included in the following table (See Note 1).

Notes on cash and due from banks, foreign exchange (asset/liability), securities sold under repurchase agreements and payables under securities lending transactions are omitted because their fair values approximate their carrying values due to their short maturities (within one year). Insignificant items are also omitted.

3. Fair value by level within the fair value hierarchy

The fair value of financial instruments is classified into the following three levels according to the observability and materiality of inputs used to measure the fair value.

Level 1 fair value: Fair value measured using observable inputs, i.e., quoted prices in active markets for assets or liabilities that are the subject of the measurement

Level 2 fair value: Fair value measured using observable inputs other than Level 1 inputs

Level 3 fair value: Fair value measured using unobservable inputs

If multiple inputs that have a material impact on the fair value measurement are used, the fair value is categorized by the lowest level in the fair value hierarchy from which inputs were used.

(Note 1) Methods and inputs used in the fair value measurements

Assets:

Securities

The fair value of securities for which unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets are available is classified as Level 1. This mainly includes listed equity securities and Japanese government bonds.

Even if quoted market prices are used, if they are from inactive markets, the fair value is classified as Level 2. This mainly includes local government bonds and corporate bonds.

For investment trusts in cases where there is no transaction price in the market and there are no material restrictions on cancellation or repurchase request such that market participants demand compensation for the risk, the standard price is their fair value and classified as Level 2.

The fair value of private placement bonds is calculated by discounting the sum of principal and interest income using the discount rate reflecting the credit risk, etc., based on the internal rating and period to maturity and is classified as Level 3 since the discount rate is unobservable.

If the quoted market price is not available, except for with private placement bonds, the fair value is determined using valuation methods, such as discounting the future cash flows. In the measurement, observable inputs are used to the maximum and include inputs such as TIBOR, swap rates, credit spread, bankruptcy probability and the loss ratio at bankruptcy. If significant unobservable inputs are used in the measurement, the fair value is classified as Level 3.

Loans and bills discounted

For loans and bills discounted, the fair value is the present value of the sum of the principal and interest discounted using the discount rate reflecting market interest rates plus credit risk, etc., based on the type, internal rating and period to maturity, and is classified as Level 3. For those with floating interest rates, since they reflect market interest rates in a short period of time, their carrying amounts approximate their fair value unless credit conditions of the borrower have changed significantly since the loans were made. Therefore, the carrying amount is used as fair value and is classified as Level 3.

For loans to bankrupt borrowers, effectively bankrupt borrowers, or borrowers likely to become bankrupt, estimated doubtful accounts are calculated based on the present value of future cash flows or the amount expected to be collected through collateral and guarantees. The fair value of such loans approximates the carrying amount less any reserve for possible loan losses, and this amount is used as the fair value and classified as Level 3.

Liabilities:

Deposits

For demand deposits that are payable immediately on demand on the consolidated balance sheet date, the amount in the demand deposit account is taken as the fair value. The fair value of time deposits is determined by segmenting the deposits by their terms and discounting the future cash flows to the present value using the interest rate that would apply when accepting new deposits of the same type. The fair value is classified as Level 2.

For short-term deposits of one year or less, the carrying amount is used as the fair value since they approximate each other. The fair value is classified as Level 2.

Borrowed money

For borrowed money with floating interest rates, since they reflect market interest rates in a short period of time and the credit conditions of the Group have not changed significantly after executing the borrowings, the carrying amount is used as the fair value as they are considered to approximate each other. As for those with short contractual terms of one year or less, the carrying amount is used as the fair value as they approximate each other and is classified as Level 2.

Derivatives

The fair value of derivatives is classified as Level 1 when an unadjusted market price in active markets is available, including stock price index futures and bond futures.

However, as most derivatives are traded over the counter and there are no published quoted market prices, the fair value is measured using the present value and valuation methods such as the Black-Scholes Model, according to the type and remaining period to maturity. The main inputs used in such valuation methods include interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and volatility. If unobservable inputs are not used or their impact is immaterial, the fair value is classified as Level 2, including interest rate swaps, currency swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts.

Price adjustments based on the credit risk of counterparties or the Bank are not made because they are immaterial.

(3) Valuation process for fair value

The Group’s Risk Management Division has established policies and procedures regarding fair value measurement, and each operating division measures fair value in accordance with such policies and procedures. Fair values measured are verified by the Risk Management Division in terms of validity of the valuation methods and inputs used to calculate the fair values and the appropriateness of the classification of fair value levels.

In fair value measurement, valuation models that most appropriately reflect the nature, characteristics, and risks of individual assets are used. In addition, in cases in which quoted market prices obtained from third parties are used as the fair value, the prices are verified such as by confirming the valuation methods and inputs used and comparing them with fair values of similar financial instruments.

(4) Effect of changes in significant unobservable inputs on fair values

Discount rate

Discount rates reflect percentage-based adjustments that are applied to standard market rates such as TIBOR and swap rates, and are mostly determined from risk premiums on uncertainties in cash flows of financial instruments arising principally from credit risk. A significant increase or decrease in the discount rate would result in a significant decrease or increase in fair value.

23. Derivative transactions

Information regarding derivative transactions, such as the types of derivatives, the policies and purpose for using derivatives and the risks and risk control systems for derivatives are described in Note 22, “Financial instruments and related disclosures.”

Outstanding derivative contracts which were revalued at fair value as of March 31, 2026 and 2025 and the gains and losses recognized in the consolidated statements of income for the years then ended are set forth in the tables below.

Derivatives to which hedge accounting is not applied:

With respect to derivatives to which hedge accounting is not applied, the contract amount, fair value and recognized gain (loss) at the balance sheet date designated by transaction type are set forth in the table below. Note that the contract amounts do not reflect the market risk exposure associated with the derivatives themselves.

25. Segment information

(a) General information about reportable segments

The Group's reportable segment is defined as an operating segment for which discrete financial information is available and examined by the Board of Directors meeting, etc. regularly in order to make decisions about the allocation of resources and assess performance. The Group comprises of the Bank and the eight consolidated subsidiaries, and engages mainly in the banking business, and financial information is controlled based on figures provided by the Bank, which operates the banking business. So, the Group defines the banking business as a reportable segment.

(b) Basis of measurement for reportable segment profit and loss, segment assets, segment liabilities and other material items

The accounting methods used for the reportable segments are the same as those used for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. Profits for reportable segments are ordinary profit. Ordinary profit is profit derived from regular business activities, including wages, dividends and interest. Profits and transfer sums of intersegment transactions within the Group are based on market prices.

Stock split and amendment to the Articles of Incorporation in connection with the stock split

At the Board of Directors' meeting held on May 14, 2026, the Bank resolved to conduct a stock split and amend its Articles of Incorporation in connection with the stock split as follows:

1. Purpose of the stock split
By lowering the amount per investment unit (minimum investment amount) of the Bank's shares through the stock split, the Bank is effectively creating a more accessible investment environment for investors. This will serve to improve share liquidity and further expand the base of investors.

2. Overview of the stock split

- (1) Method of the stock split

The Bank will implement stock split whereby each common stock held by shareholders who are registered or on record as of the record date, Wednesday, September 30, 2026, will be split into three shares.

- (2) Number of shares to be increased by the stock split

|                                                                      |                    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Total number of issued shares before the stock split                 | 67,300,000 shares  |
| Number of shares to be increased by the stock split                  | 134,600,000 shares |
| Total number of issued shares after the stock split                  | 201,900,000 shares |
| Total number of shares authorized to be issued after the stock split | 360,000,000 shares |

- (3) Timetable for the stock split

|                                          |                               |
|------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Date of public notice of the record date | Monday, September 14, 2026    |
| Record date                              | Wednesday, September 30, 2026 |
| Effective date                           | Thursday, October 1, 2026     |

- (4) Impact on per share information

Per share information assuming that the stock split was conducted at the beginning of the year ended March 31, 2025 is as follows:

|                            | Yen        |            | U.S. dollars |
|----------------------------|------------|------------|--------------|
|                            | 2026       | 2025       | 2026         |
| Net assets per share       | ¥ 1,280.66 | ¥ 1,223.37 | $ 8.01      |
| Basic earnings per share   | 113.30     | 90.84      | 0.70         |
| Diluted earnings per share | 113.23     | 90.77      | 0.70         |

3. Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation in connection with the stock split

- (1) Reasons for the amendment

In connection with the stock split, the Bank will amend the total number of authorized shares as stipulated in Article 6 of its Articles of Incorporation to reflect the stock split ratio pursuant to Article 184, Paragraph 2 of the Japanese Companies Act, which will take effect on Thursday, October 1, 2026.

- (2) Details of the amendment

Details of the amendment are as follows.

(Underlined portions indicate the proposed amendment.)

| Current Articles of Incorporation                                                                                                                                             | Proposed Amendment                                                                                                                                                            |

Merger between consolidated subsidiaries

At the Board of Directors' meeting held on June 22, 2026, the Bank resolved to merge its wholly owned subsidiaries, Kiyo Card Co., Ltd. and Kiyo Card DC Co., Ltd., and a merger agreement was entered into between the two companies on the same date, as follows:

1. Purpose of the merger

The Bank has decided to proceed with the merger in order to consolidate management resources related to the card business, enhance operational efficiency, and strengthen the management structure. Through the integration of the business foundations of both companies, the Bank aims to improve service capabilities and ensure the sustainable operation of the business.

Following the merger, the surviving company will operate under the name Kiyo Card Co., Ltd. The integration will further strengthen the card business, particularly in the cashless payments sector, and contribute to enhancing the value provided to customers.

2. Overview of the merger

(1) Schedule for the merger

|                                                                           |                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Board of Directors' meeting for approval of the merger agreement          | June 22, 2026             |
| Shareholders' meeting for approval of the merger agreement (subsidiaries) | July 2, 2026              |
| Effective date of the merger                                              | April 1, 2027 (scheduled) |

(2) Method of the merger

The merger will be conducted as an absorption-type merger, with Kiyo Card Co., Ltd. as the surviving company and Kiyo Card DC Co., Ltd. as the absorbed company.

(3) Details of allotment for the merger

Because both companies are wholly owned subsidiaries of the Bank, Kiyo Card Co., Ltd. (the surviving company) will not deliver any shares, cash, or other consideration to the Bank, the shareholder of Kiyo Card DC Co., Ltd. (the absorbed company) as consideration for the merger.

(4) Treatment of subscription rights to shares and bonds with subscription rights to shares

Not applicable.

3. Overview of the companies involved in the merger

4. Status of the surviving company after the merger

There will be no changes to the name, location, representative, business activities, capital, and fiscal closing date of the surviving company as a result of this merger.

5. Impact on the Bank's financial results

Due to a merger between consolidated subsidiaries, the impact on the Bank's consolidated financial results is expected to be minimal.

Independent auditor's report

To the Board of Directors of The Kiyo Bank, Ltd.:

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of The Kiyo Bank, Ltd. (“the Company”) and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Group”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as at March 31, 2026 and 2025, the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2026 and 2025, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements in Japan (including those that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements of public interest entities), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Assessment of loans and bills discounted to small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs)

| The key audit matter                                                                                                                                                                                                 | How the matter was addressed in our audit                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The Kiyo Bank, Ltd. (the Bank) and its consolidated subsidiaries reported loans and bills discounted of ¥4,344.6 billion, accounting for 71% of total assets and a related reserve for possible loan losses of ¥19.4 | The primary procedures we performed to assess whether the Bank's assessment of loans and bills discounted to SMEs was reasonable included the following: | billion in the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2026. Of the amount of loans and bills discounted, the balance of loans and bills discounted to SMEs amounting to ¥3,318.5 billion (76% of the total balance of loans and bills discounted) accounted for a significant portion of the balance of loans and bills discounted. Loans and bills discounted to SMEs are loans extended to companies with share capital of ¥300 million or less (¥100 million or less for wholesalers; ¥50 million or less for retailers, restaurants, and goods rental and leasing services) or companies or individuals with the number of regular employees of 300 or less (100 or less for wholesalers and goods rental and leasing services; 50 or less for retailers and restaurants).

As described in Note 2. “Significant accounting policies” under (f) Reserve for possible loan losses, and (p) Significant accounting estimates to the Consolidated Financial Statements, the Bank conducts asset assessment based on its internal self-assessment criteria for all loans including loans and bills discounted, in order to classify borrowers into the borrower categories according to their assigned credit risk rating.

When determining the borrower category, the Bank assesses the borrowers’ ability to repay based mainly on their substantive financial condition, financing, and profitability. The Bank also gives comprehensive consideration, in light of industry and other business characteristics, to their projected business continuity and profitability, ability to repay obligations based on their annual debt repayment capacity, and the appropriateness of their business improvement plans, after confirming the terms and conditions of the loans and their delinquency status.

For each category of borrowers, the Bank recognizes a reserve for possible loan losses or makes direct write-offs for expected credit losses based on the historical experience of loan losses or probability of default, in accordance with the methods specified in its policy for write-offs and provisions.

(1) Internal control testing

We tested the design and operating effectiveness of certain of the Bank’s internal controls relevant to the assessment of loan quality. In this assessment, we tested the following controls:

- controls to validate whether the internal self-assessment criteria, and the policy for write-offs and provisions complied with the accounting standards;
- controls to ensure the reliability of the borrowers’ financial information entered into the financing support system;
- IT application controls over the quantitative determination of credit rating; and
- controls to ensure the appropriateness of the monitoring of borrowers including the qualitative assessment.

(2) Assessment of the determination of the borrower category

We assessed the appropriateness of the determination of the borrower category by performing the following procedures for a selection of SME borrowers, who were deemed to have a higher risk of improper classification:

- assessed the appropriateness of the results of the determination of the borrower category by inspecting relevant documents, comparing selected information used for the determination with available external information as necessary, and inquiring of personnel in the Credit Review Department;
- assessed the appropriateness of the determination of the borrower category by evaluating financial and other information of the borrowers and, for the borrowers requiring a business improvement plan, by analyzing the feasibility of the business improvement plan and assessing their cash flows, among others;
- assessed the appropriateness of the determination of the borrower category based on our understanding of their recent business condition and our analysis of their cash flows, including requests for modification of the terms of loans; and
- assessed whether there was any management bias in determining the borrower category in the prior year by evaluating the appropriateness of historical changes in the borrower category.

The Bank has set its core principle of "co-creating value with local communities by fulfilling its role as a leading regional financial group," and is transforming its business model into one that starts from transactions with SMEs.

Since the business foundation of SMEs is generally more vulnerable than that of large enterprises, the Bank determines the category of SME borrowers based not only on their financial condition but also comprehensive assessment of various factors including their technical capabilities, sales capacity and growth potential, their representatives' income status, asset quality, and guarantee status and capacity, in light of the substance of their business.

Accordingly, the determination of the borrower category for loans and bills discounted to SMEs is highly dependent upon management's judgment, which has a significant effect on the recognized amount of reserve for possible loan losses.

We, therefore, determined that our assessment of the appropriateness of the Bank's assessment of loans and bills discounted to SMEs, especially management's determination of the borrower category, was the most significant matter in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the current fiscal year, and accordingly, a key audit matter.

Other Information

The other information comprises the information included in the disclosure documents that contain or accompany the audited financial statements, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

We do not perform any work on the other information as we determine such information does not exist.

Responsibilities of Management and the audit and supervisory committee for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit and supervisory committee is responsible for overseeing the directors' performance of their duties with regard to the design, implementation and maintenance of the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the audit is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate whether the presentation and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Japan, the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for the purpose of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the audit and supervisory committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the audit and supervisory committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the audit and supervisory committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Fee-related Information

Fees paid or payable to our firm and to other firms within the same network as our firm for audit and non-audit services provided to the Company and its subsidiaries for the current year are 82 million yen and 1 million yen, respectively.

Convenience Translation

The U.S. dollar amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements with respect to the year ended March 31, 2026 are presented solely for convenience. Our audit also included the translation of yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made on the basis described in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.

Interest required to be disclosed by the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan

We do not have any interest in the Group which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan.
